

MARCUS BERNARDINO

604-684-9769

marcusbernardino@gmail.com

Goal: To gain the skills and experience necessary to become a journeyman electrician.

Education

Entry Level Technician- Electrical

Camosun College 2009

- Learned how to design and install basic electrical circuits.
- Gained practical skills needed to work in the electrical industry.

Photovoltaic Installer Training Program

Seneca College 2006- 2009

- Learned how to size, design, and install solar (photovoltaic) units
- Gained strong understanding of the Canadian Electric Code.

Undergraduate Studies

University of Victoria 2001- 2004

- Studied mathematics, science and economics and developed analytical skills
- Ability to compete in a strong academic environment.

Employment Experience

Tree-planter and Foreman

Brinkman Reforestation Ltd.

Various locations -2003, 2006-2009

Summit Reforestation

Revelstoke, 2008

- Worked in a very physical demanding environment
- Troubleshoot unexpected challenges in a remote workplace

Service Assistant

Mountain Equipment Co-op

Victoria, BC, 2006-2008

- Provided genuine and effective customer service

Customer Service Representative

Victoria, 2003-2004

CIBC

- Held a role of great responsibility

Strengths

- Punctual
- Hard Working
- Physically fit
- Very friendly
- Team player
- Good listener