LYNDON LENGSFELD

636 EAST BROADWAY, VANCOUVER BC • 778 686 5974

OBJECTIVE

To gain full time employment in a field of great interest, allowing me to gain new skills through an electrical apprenticeship.

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Responsible and extremely reliable
- Highly motivated and adaptable with a desire to learn new things
- Current Occupational First Aid Certificate
- Current WHMIS certificate
- Valid Class 5 drivers license and own reliable transportation
- Proficient with various computer applications including word and excel

EXPERIENCE

June 2009 – Currently — New Way Electric
Vancouver BC

Work directly with journeyman or higher level apprentices for beginning of rough-in to completion of residential units, including interpreting schematics and installing boxes, switches, receptacles, pot lights, running conduit, basic meter base assembly, splicing and numerous other tasks

June 2008 – June 2009 — Martinis Restaurant
Vancouver BC
Nightline cook

Work fluidly with other team members to create good quality food in an extremely busy environment

2007 & 2008 — The Sun Inn and Kylesku Hotel
United Kingdom
Bartender and relief chef

Responsibilities included service and maintenance of cask conditioned ales, opening and closing the pub, as well as cash and safe duties

2004 - 2006 — Canadian Princess Resort — Ucluelet, B.C.
Kitchen Manager

Responsible for maintaining all standards as set by the health department as well as those set forth by the corporate office
Responsible for all the tasks relating to hiring, firing, training and scheduling of staff
Managed to lower food costs by 6% over the 2005 season

EDUCATION

2009 — Vancouver Career College — Vancouver, BC
Obtained Electrical Foundations certificate and level 1 electrical

1999-2001 — Southern Alberta Institute of Tech. — Calgary, AB
Obtained Hotel and Restaurant Management diploma

1999 — Holy Trinity Academy — Okotoks, AB
Obtained High School Diploma

REFERENCES (CURRENT, MORE AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST)

Peter Yang, Kitchen Manager – Martinis Restaurant 604 873 0021